

PREPARING FOR THE UNKNOWN: MANAGING RISK IN NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

A PROGRAM FOR EXECUTIVES AND BOARD LEADERS

Wednesday, June 15, 2016

East Library, Reid Castle

Manhattanville College, Purchase, NY

Cost: $20

8:00 – 8:30 a.m. Breakfast & Networking

8:30 – 9:45 a.m. Panel discussion

"Nonprofits face a range of risks that span from legal, reputational, financial, human capital, and beyond. Although risks cannot be eliminated, they can be mitigated and managed. Identifying key risks, and assessing how best to manage them, are essential steps for every nonprofit."

Geraldine F. Watson

*Vice President for Finance and Operations
Rockefeller Brothers Fund*

Financial Stability: Planning for the Unexpected

Laurence Scot, CPA

Co-Founder & Co-Managing Partner
Skody, Scot & Co. CPAs

Strategic Planning: Practical Approaches to Risk Mitigation and Fostering Organizational Agility

Anne Gardon

Lead Consultant & Coach
Strategies for Change Now

Risk Management Planning: A Nonprofit Imperative

Geraldine Watson, CPA

Vice President for Finance & Operations

The Insurance Component of Risk Management

Michael Santocki, Esq.

Managing Director
Management and Professional
Risk Group
Crystal & Company

"We've all been there — the completely unexpected happens. The immediate thought is, "What can I do?" or "Who can I turn to?" It is critical to plan for these situations and to become aware of risk and how to manage it."

Maria Imperial, CEO, YWCA White Plains and Central Westchester Chair, Nonprofit Certificate Advisory Council

For more information and to register see

<https://community.mville.edu/msb4.19.event>

by April 15th or contact Rhonna.goodman@mville.edu or Michele.braun@mville.edu

Sponsored by

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE®

The Non-Profit Management
Center and the Institute for Managing Risk